I wipe the blood from my lip

With a ragged scarf now

I get the feeling

You don't care anymore

All shaken up and shattered

I pick myself from the floor

Those sweat stained dreams

All tattered and torn

Oh, bleeding heart graffiti

I don't need it, baby, I don't need it

Oh, bleeding heart graffiti

I don't need it, baby, I don't need it

Amongst the broken glass now

You standing in the street

Times a crawling

My life slipping by

Although, I hang my head down

To the ground and I

Tired of crying

Those whiskey soaked tears

Oh, bleeding heart graffiti

I don't need it, baby, I don't need it
Oh, bleeding heart graffiti
I don't need it, baby, I don't need it
I will follow the rainbow to the end of the road and I
Didn't do you no harm, well, woman
I'm a man waiting for the sun to shine
I have waited for too long, yeah baby
Don't you cry now woman and don't you cry now, honey
'Cause sometime that sun is gonna shine on me, yeah
Oh, bleeding heart graffiti
I don't need it, well baby, I don't need it
Oh, bleeding heart graffiti
I don't need it, baby, I don't need it
Oh, bleeding heart graffiti
I don't need it, baby, I don't need it
Oh, bleeding heart graffiti
I don't need it, oh baby, I don't need it
