I fell in love

With your face

Take down the walls

Of this place

You're a wild thing

You say wild things

But much too wild I think

You're a wild thing

You say wild things

But much too wild I think

And you sense the heat in my heart

And she broke me down like a dog

And I cried and cried

Till I couldn't speak no more

You're a wild thing

May say wild things

But much too wild I think

Child

Hush your mouth

Innocence

Please don't speak

You're a wild thing

You say wild things

But much too wild I think

You're a wild thing

And everything you say wild things

But much too wild I think
