Survival of the fittest, baby

Yeah, you thought that life was so damn easy

You try to run before you crawl

Yeah, the innocent 'til they prove you guilty

You got yourself some bad information

Yeah, a victim of ill communication

You can run but you just can't hide

Baby, you gotta let it ride

Baby, guilty

Gonna steal your heart

You burn brightly in the darkness alone, ohh

You burn brightly in the dark

And run on our own

Yes, we hide, though our hearts are breaking

Run on our own, on our own

Survival of the fittest, baby

Yeah, you thought that life was so damn easy

You try to run before you crawl

Say you're innocent 'til they prove you guilty

Got yourself some bad information

Yeah, a victim of ill communication

You can run but you just can't hide

Baby, you gotta let it ride

Guilty, let it ride

Steal your heart

You burn brightly in the darkness alone, ohh

You burn brightly in the dark

And run on our own

Yes, we hide, though our hearts are breaking

Run on our own, on our own

You burn brightly in the darkness, alone, ohh

You burn brightly in the dark

And run on our own

Yes, we hide, though our hearts are breaking

Run on our own, on our own
