Hail the guitar
All tuned down
In a power circle
Obey the crowd
All ride a wave
Crash right in
Lovers and fighters
Adrenaline

The singer spits
Our hearts all rise
Energy is visible
We all crush tight
All washed away
Tsunami wave
Fragile human
All the same

And now I face the sound
When all around is burning
I'm like Hermes
Drifting down

I am the saint
The path into the light
I am the knife
That cuts right through your life
The path immortalized
I am the saint
The path into the light

Caught in a trap
The systems are down
Communication broken I feel underground
Weight of the storm
In sound we all drown
You'll never understand
What drives us all on

And now I face the sound
When all around is burning

I'm like Hermes drifting down

I am the saint
The path the way the light
I am the knife that cuts right through your life
I have found the path immortalized
I am the saint
The path The way The light

I am the saint
The path into the light
I am the knife
That cuts right through your life
The path immortalized
I am the saint
The path into the ligh

I am the saint...
