Hold on 'cause I'm ready to go
Now dig your nails into my mind
Nothing's gonna change the way I feel

This is the part where you hear my voice
And suddenly sends shivers down your spine
Nothing's gonna change the way you feel

Now you've heard it, you will tell your friends
All about your glorious find
They will start to feel the way you feel

You will think that you're the first to hear
Your friends will start to think that you were alright
They will start to feel the way I feel

When you hear this song on the stereo
I hope it makes you feel like
Like I felt when I heard the first time
'Rocks Tonic Juice Magic' alive

Now you're thinking that you understand
Everything that's going through my mind
Now you're starting to feel the way I feel

This where you start to analyze
My thoughts, my fears, my passion and my life
Now you're close to feeling how I feel

The best way to take in everything
Is turn it up and flick the light
Close your eyes and feel the way I feel

Now you're about as close as it gets
To understanding me through all these lines
Now you understand the way I feel

When you hear this song on the stereo
I hope it makes you feel like
Like I felt when I heard the first time
'Rocks Tonic Juice Magic' alive

Listen carefully
Feel the way I feel
Listen to my voice
Think of something real

Let the music take
You far, far away

When you hear this song on the stereo
I hope it makes you feel like
Like I felt when I heard the first time
'Rocks Tonic Juice Magic' alive
