"A Bit Lost"

Visit "A Bit Lost" on MotoLyrics.com

Do you wanna go back in time?
Do you wish a beer or wine?
Is there a mountain you wanna climb?
You want the best but you don't have a dime

you are a bit lost
you let me by you
I get there in time
I'm your man if you need a ride

Even nothing as you knew is full
I say now that is cruel
I only see the good in you come here I guess I love you too

Damn life ain't fair, you "grow an army"
When you step off the train
And leave me standing there

"With this hearing I will be well" you break down, you will burn hear the starling lullaby lullaby o' my, o' my

Ever since you ran away I have been
I didn't shave today
I can not let you see me this way

Now I'm a bit lost
Son't hear about me
Right before my eyes
You start makin' a bad boy out of me
