I feel her close, I swear it's true

Yes I fell right in this moment she looks down on you

From angel's land, her tender hand

Is caring cause a mother's love will never end

Daddy tell me what is heaven like

Where is mommy, I want to hold her tight

Refrain:

A star looks down tonight

Shining down and burning bright

Though she's gone away

Where the angels play

A star looks down tonight

Daddy's here and everything's alright

And our love goes on

With a simple song

On and on

Daddy say, if I should pray

Could I talk to her and tell her all my secrets

Baby do, if it pleases you

Let your mother know your love is so completely

Daddy tell me what is heaven like

Where is mommy, I want to hold her tight
