Why you wanna let me down so
Why you wanna let me down so
I turn my back for an hour or 2 and there's someone loving you
I'm not gonna take it

Why you disrespect me so
Why you disrespecting me so
I give you everything but you just want more
I tell you what I tell you before
I'm not gonna take it

One dark morning you'll wake up look for me but baby
I will not be there
So dry your eyes
'cause I am not gonna care
So don't you cry don't you cry don't you cry

Why you wanna make me go travelling
Why you wanna make me wanna go travelling
Something's got to chage I gotta suss my mind
And when I get it all in line
I'm not gonna take it

One dark morning you'll wake up look for me but baby
I will not be there
So dry your eyes
'cause I am not gonna care
So don't you cry don't you cry don't you cry

If you're giving me cool love
I give you cool love
If you're giving me cool love
I'll give you cool love
