Finally my destiny took over yours
We became one soul
Not knowing that you were the queen
The beauty of my dreams

Standing always so close
Now that you're so real
All the crying stops here
Wanting you more than I can
Vida mia

I think I found my love after all
Waiting all my life until you came along
I think I found my love after all
Waiting all my life

And I just wanna to let you know that
Eres tu la vida mia
You're all my life

Finally, I can look up to the skies
And just know that you're mine
Now that you're so real
All the crying stops here

Wanting you more that I can
Vida mia

I think I found my love after all
Waiting all my life until you came along
I think I found my love after all
Waiting all my life

And I just wanna let you know that
Eres tu la vida mia
You're all my life
You're all my life
