People say and I agree
if something goes away and it returns it's yours for keep's but that is not working for me every night and every day I realize that she possesses power over me and only her eyes I can see.
And I am just a fool that still believes in what she promised to be together till the end damn not again
Why I can't stop this lie that every thing's all right that we were gonna last forever why it's easier to deny that all we had just die
to forget you it's now or never.
People say and I agree that with faith you can move mountains mentally nothing real it's just a dream every night every day minutes become hours day's to month and you're not here my dry and no more tears.

And I am just a fool that still believes
damn not again
to forget you it's now or never.
I just wanna know
why this crazy thing to me just keep's on happening how keep than love of my life look into my eyes and tell me pretty lies I just wanna know

look into my eyes and tell me pretty lies I'm tired of the game but just can seem to tell you goodbye
