There is romance
And there is love
There are reports of a
Hard-rubbing beauty whose victim i know

I can't hesitate or wait
'cause i don't speak that language
I don't know that tone
I can't translate from right to wrong
I can just call it love

Yes, you heard right: i call it love

There is romance
And there is love
That seems to be the only
System that they know of

But why be satisfied with only
Love when there are
Games you should know of
Such as romance and turdle doves
Who wonder if it's love

I wanna call it love

Can we dance
Instead of walking?

We wanna break into love's industry
Like down it's machinery slows down
When we've danced our socks off then it's late
We'll lie down to anticipate forever

When we romance
I feel a part
Of the loveliest human creature
That i know by far

Who stays away from other boys 'cause
She knows where she's life or death or love

Where she is thought so highly of
Where someone calls her love

I wanna call it love

When we dance
Darling explosions

We are chemistry without chemicals
A constant chain outside us both remember
Oh i've never been so right before
Chances are i could be so

When we dance
Instead of walking

We wanna break into love's industry
Like down it's machinery slows down

When we've danced our socks off then it's late
We'll lie down to anticipate forever

There is romance
That changes its course
Or just sets statistics answers with Anti-remorse

When i am satisfied don't tell me
So just let me go on and on and on
And as i wake up by your side
I'll know that it is love

Or at least i'll call it love
