Again i hear a voice
Her voice calling my name
Write the song and call in the beach
And you hear her call
A rose some call it
And watch the sun come up from the edge of the deep green sea
She called my name

And faith
Saying
The stone white clown still laughing after all these years

Some people i'd like to meet
Everytime you take the way to bring me a smile
Never look away from you
In everyway i take the way that you smile
And never look away from you

There's only a picture of her
Fuschia rests inside my heart
Just with a picture of her
Just with a picture of her

And write a letter to elise
And you know she'll never write back in a a hundred

Can't touch the idol
The siamese twins of fire
Figurehead girl

It all sits inside of me

Just sits inside of me
Just sits inside of me

A place we can go

There's a place we can go

There's a place we can go
There's a place we can go
There's a place we can go

Take me there
Take me there
Take me there Take me there Take me there.
