Slowly fading blue
The eastern hollows
Catch the dying sun
The nighttime follows
Silent and black
Mirror pool
Mirrors the lonely place
Where I meet you

You raise your head in the fading light
And through the dark your eyes shine bright
Burn like fire
Burn like fire in Cairo
Blaze like fire
Blaze like fire in Cairo
Flare like fire, flare
Like fire in Cairo
Burn like fire
Burn like fire in Cairo

Shifting crimson veil
Silken hips
Slide under my hand
Swollen lips
Whisper my name
And I yearn
Take me in your arms
I start to burn

I feel my body melting aglow
I feel the passion and I caught myself, so
Touch my skin in a million ways
Then the heat disappears
And the mirage fades away

Burn like fire in Cairo
Burn like a fire
Blaze like fire in Cairo
Blaze like fire
Flare with one more like
Fire in Cairo
Burn like fire in Cairo
Burn like fire
Fire
Burn like a fire in Cairo
Burn like a fire, fire, fire
Blaze like a fire in Cairo
Blaze like a fire, fire, fire, fire
Flare like a fire in Cairo
Flare like a fire, fire, fire, fire
Burn like a fire in Cairo
