She was a vast machine, she was the Emperor's dream

she was the biggest damn starship that I'd ever seen

She was so huge in size, she swatted ships like flies

Had 'round about a hundred forty-four TIEs.

Gave the Rebels a scare, man you shoulda been there

She made them all run, they couldn't go anywhere

because all Hoth was shakin', the ice was breakin'

the skies were taken, and she was wastin' 'em, and you

You were FIVE MILES LONG

Yeah you, you were FIVE MILES LONG

So to Bespin she flew, went through a captain or two,

and ended up at Endor fighting ships and a shoe

Couldn't go for the kill, she had to hold 'em all still, because the second Death Star was to "fire at will".

When the darndest thing- A busted up A-Wing came right through the bridge and hit Piett on the chin

and the ship was breakin', set the Death Star shakin'

and fire was ragin', and just like Yavin, then she blew

You were FIVE MILES LONG

Yeah you, you were FIVE MILES LONG

I can't believe the size of you- you were FIVE MILES LONG
