"The Few And The Proud"

Because I'm straight
It's a trend to you
How could that be
When we number so few
You've always criticized us
Saying we do wrong
You just feel threatened
Cause you don't belong
There's nothing to fear
In our existence
I'm reaching out to you
You keep your distance
I separate myself
From the rest
Always thinking straight
Striving for the best
The few and the proud
Side by side
Standing tall
With clear minds
We'll never fall
Join with us
In our fight
In our hearts
The flame burns bright
