There's something that I just can't seem to
Get off my mind and it's this, girl:
We've let it go too far.
We're too young to have tied ourselves to
Each others' arms.
We've forgotten who we are.
I loved her; the two of us were one plus one:
One together, but I found
That two cannot stay one, stay one forever.
There's something that I just can't seem to
Get off my mind, and it's this, girl:
We've let it go too far.
We're too young to have tied ourselves to
Each others' arms.
We've forgotten who we are.
(Interlude)
There's something that I just can't seem to
Get off my mind, and it's this, girl:
We've let it go too far.
We're too young to have tied ourselves to
Each others' minds!
We've forgotten who we are.
We've forgotten who we are.
We've forgotten who we are.
Too young to have tied ourselves
Have tied ourselves
Too young to have tied ourselves
Have tied ourselves
(Fade out)
