Babe you try to sail the world on your own
You try but you sink like a stone
You feel a little lost but hey
Babe there's so many things left to see
A little harbour just for you and me
We can make it if we only believe
We tear it up ? we move along
It's a different beat a different song
This is not the end of the world
It's the beginning of a brand new day
You know time waits for no one
This is not the end of the world
It's the start of a getaway
You know time waits for no one
(Babe pack your suitcase and get ready to go
We got the whole world to overthrow Ain't got the money but we go know how)
Hey now babe there is nothing left here to prove
We try to push it but I just won't move
We got the rhythm now we want the groove
Let's tear it up ? feel the breeze
Move along baby please
This is not the end of the world
It's the beginning of a brand new day
You know time waits for no one
This is not the end of the world
It's the start of a getaway
You know time waits for no one
And no one waits for time
Seems so hollow hollow hollow
But you now time
Feels no sorrow sorrow sorrow
This is not the end of the world
It's the beginning of a brand new day
You know time waits for no one
This is not the end of the world
It's the start of a getaway
You know time waits for no one
No one
No one
And all we need it's time
