(A. Parker / S. Evans)

Come on in, close the door
Yeah, we're gonna rock some more
That's how the sound goes each and every night
That's the one that's gonna make the wrong things right

You can try it, you might you can sing what you like now ooh
but that's not what I call love, baby
It's not what I call love

The moon is near, so am I We'll be together in the by and by way It's right for you babe, then it's right for me Baby, it's the way it's always gonna be

You can try it, you might
you can sing what you like now ooh
but that's not what I call love, baby
That's not what I call love
But that's not what I call love, baby
It's not what I call love

If this is love I'll see it through You can wake me when it's over Will you be there when I call Will you be there to catch me when I fall

Come on in, close the door
Yeah, we're gonna rock some more
That's how the sound goes each and every night
That's the one that's gonna make the wrong things

You can try it, you might
you can sing what you like now ooh
but that's not what I call love, baby
It's not what I call love

But that's not what I call love, baby
It's not what I call love

But that's not what I call love, baby
It's not what I call love

But that's not what I call love, baby
It's not what I call love

Not what I call love, baby
Not what I call love
