Tell me how can it be all the rumours I hear I don't want to believe 'cause I know in my heart his intentions are real and that we'll never part

I don't care what some people have to say
'cause I won't let anyone take him away

That boy was sent for me
That boy was meant for me
and in his arms is where
I always want to be
That boy was sent for me
That boy was meant to be with me tonight

In my heart there's no doubt we were made for each other, well never fall out and yet, still I can feel that my friends don't believe that his feelings are real

I don't care what some people have to say
'cause I won't let anyone take him away

That boy was sent for me
That boy was meant for me
and in his arms is where
I always want to be
That boy was sent for me
That boy was meant to be with me tonight

That boy was sent for me
That boy was meant for me
and in his arms is where
I always want to be
That boy was sent for me
That boy was meant to be with me tonight

Alright
That boy, that boy, that boy
That boy, that boy, that boy

I wanna hold him
That boy, that boy, that boy
That boy, that boy
That boy, that boy, that boy
I wanna hold him
Alright

I don't care what some people have to say
'cause I won't let anyone take him away

That boy was sent for me
That boy was meant for me
I always want to be
That boy was sent for me
That boy was meant to be with me tonight

That boy was sent for me
I always want to be
That boy was sent for me

That boy was sent for me
I always want to be
That boy was sent for me
