I've been gone for some time
I packed my bags and ran right outside
You'd believe, if I'd leave
Some part of me with you that's alive
I've seen you-
I've been yours
I've been
Trying to explain why it's a lovely morning
Trying to explain
Why I'd be withholding
If I said I didn't try
You're alone, all the time
You packed your mind and you left me behind
I've seen you
I've been yours
I've been
Trying to explain
Why it's a lonely morning
Trying to explain
Why I've been withholding
Trying to explain
Why I don't know where I'm going
