" Teardrops falling down
Falling down because of you and I
Everything has changed
Since the first time you looked in my eyes

It just isn't the same
But who am I to blame
I see you walk away
Oh hear me when I say

[chorus]
Don't go breaking my heart
Don't tear us apart
I need you so
Don't go breaking my heart
Don't tear us apart
Oh please don't go

You used to say
That you'd always love and cherish me
I was yours to keep
But something happened can't you see

Love turns into sand
Slipping through my hands
The wind takes it away
Oh hear me as I say

[chorus]

[toast]
Well it's my mind on my lover
And my lover on my mind
What a lovin' combination
My lover on my mind
And my mind on my lover
Oh what a good good combination

Me thinking about she, she thinking about me
Oh man what a loving combination
She thinking about me, me thinking about she

Oh man, what a good good combination"
