I know sometimes baby you get hurt
When it's something I say, or something I do
It's just so hard to find the right words
Make them sound the right way
To you

You make me sing inside
Sing this happy tune,
And I just can't deny that I'm smiling too
And when you try to hide
When the darkness comes to your mood
I will sing it back to you

No words can never say
You make feel this way
Give me this happy tune
And I will sing it back to you

Some nights and days when I finally hold you tight
When you're close to me, I wish you could see
That in your eyes I see stars that shine so bright
You're sightseeing to me

You make me sing inside
Sing this happy tune,
And I just can't deny that I'm smiling too
And when you try to hide
When the darkness comes to your mood
I will sing it back to you

No words can never say
You make feel this way
Give me this happy tune
And I will sing it back to you

I will sing it, sing it
I will sing it, sing it

You make me sing inside
Sing this happy tune,
And I just can't deny that I'm smiling too

And when you try to hide
When the darkness comes to your mood
I will sing it back to you

No words can never say
You make feel this way
Give me this happy tune
And I will sing it back to you (x2)
