It's over 5 years have been past
But I remember and so do you
We've been kissing always till dusk
I acted like a traitor and so do you
I left you but for now I can't
Even answer this one question "Why?"
The hundred of missed calls per day...

Now I have
My own life
Tell me why?
And last night I dreamed of you
Now you have
Your own life
Know I hurt you
And you know you hurt me too
But do you remember
All the promises we've made?
And God knows
May be we will meet again one day

It's over 5 years have been past
But you remember and so do I
Your eyes and a strawberry sweets
You used to like and so do I
I left you but for now I can't
Even answer this one question "Why?"
The hundreds of missed calls per day...

All the promise that we've made...
