"Y Should I Care"

You're like a girl
Who 'forever alone' and
You always add
All the boys through the Internet
You hate phones
And prefer only messaging
Post on your wall
Only porn and all stuff like that
I don't want to know about your soul
Cuz you're always acting like a whore

Why should I care?
You don't deserve it
I'm hearing same shit everyday
Why should I care?
You don't deserve it
Your steps are well-know
Can't you see that?
I don't wanna hear you
Your lie is fucking bullshit

You can be kind can be funny whatever
The queen of beauty
Be the best in the world you're not
But guess the one
Thing that's harder than ever
Is to be yourself, not the one of this 'suicide girls'
I don't want to know about your soul
Cuz you're always acting like a whore

You know...
Get the fuck out
