"Dust In The Sunlight"

Visit "Dust In The Sunlight" on MotoLyrics.com

What has been done to you has been done for a reason

From where I'm stood, the view reminds me of home

A promise is made in good faith, it means everything

You mean more to me each day and you mean everything, everything

What has been done to you has been done for a reason

From where I'm stood, the view reminds me of home

I should know, I should know, I won't fight, I won't fight

Well I won't fight, I won't fight, well I won't fight, well I won't fight

Fight, fight, fight

Well I won't fight
Well I won't fight
Well I won't fight

Fight, fight, fight
