Temperature's high
I lie in my bed
Taking cures and lemon tea
Under eleven woolen blankets
If you go I will be free

Would you be happy
Would you be glad
If time will take us
Far apart?

And all I want is a hundred reasons
To come and see you
In summer seasons
Look around us
Staring faces
Life is simple in many cases

Walked on a rooftop
In windy weather
Took a picture of sleepy town
Wrote a tale with a black crows feather
Now you're gone, I stay alone

Would you be happy
Would you be glad
If time will take us
Back to start?

And all I want is a hundred reasons
To come and meet you
In summer seasons
Look around us
Staring faces
Life is simple
Just when you play with it

All i need is a hundred reasons
To come and see you
In summer seasons
Look around us
Staring faces

Life is simple
Just when you play with it all

Would you be glad enough?
