Susanne: That's what you should do, you should be dinosaur's manager

Kim: y'know dinosaur has like ten managers

Susanne: they don't have any other managers

Kim: they have like...are you kidding? they have a manager in every city

Susanne: it'd be such an easy job though to just tell them what to do, i think

Kim: ahhh, yeah but, it's like, they want you to do everything else like they're

That kind of band like they don't wanna do anything

Susanne: yeah but that's easier, to do everything than to just do some of it,

It's easier y'know

Kim: that's true, and have somebody else...

Susanne: and then have somebody else fuck up what you've done by doing part of

Your job it's like easier just to do the whole thing

Susanne: in some ways i think like somebody like redd kross would be easy to

Manage cos they'd just be so like "well, whatta we do now?" and you

Just tell them and that would be it

Kim: they just wanna rock

Susanne: yeah right they don't wanna do anything

Kim: they just wanna be rock gods, y'know

Susanne: [?] snare

Susanne: so let's call j

Kim: ok

Kim: hello, is j there? oh um can you just tell him kim and susanne called, ok,

Thank you, bye
