The open end is here
The key is on the carpet
You come down like a burning house
The keying slice of a knife

Dark liquid night is descending
You turn on like a T.V. set
Afterwards I don't remember
How it felt, how I felt
How we felt to breathe alright wanna record it?

Now you have fallen from my pocket
And you can't see the ground
Close to your own face
Sucking itself in Aaaaaaaaaahhhhhhhhhh
