Hey describe
Describe the touch to you
No, it's the thought
It's warm and yellow and has a ruffle
It's warm and yellow and

He's so quiet
I forgot he's there
And I think, here I am

Oh Alice
Alice come back, he's just a kitten
He's just a kitten

A thousand leaves for your disguise
Fall on the sky and looking up from down
Is a sea to realize
The leaves are falling up and down
Up and down

And this is from my heart to you
A crazy wind will stir me too
And contre de la sexisme
I am with you
