Karen's moving out
Out into the sky
Karen trips on a cloud
Sets down, the stars in her eyes
She's alone in her room
She's deep inside of her mind

Karen's leaving for the snow
Somewhere to somewhere, blind
Cut's out the line of my soul
I was tethered to her for a time

Will she stay forever?
Are we still together?
Will she stay forever?
Are we still together?
Will she stay forever?
Are we still together?
Will she stay forever?
Are we still together?

Will she?

Karen, your hanging on the line
Wrap your coat tight around
Karen, your eyes are on the prize
I'll catch you on my way down
