Your bounce to the ounce makes us want to pounce
You're just being totally perfect
On Larry King, you said you weren't tired
Time to put to bed the competitive edge

They say you can't say no to drama
Now you don't have to try so hard
The label says, "Don't have to wear less clothes"
Next time you take a bubble bath

Hey, hey little baby break down
Button up baby, you come undone
Hey, hey little baby get down
Before you fall and hurt someone

You say you need privacy
Broken glass everywhere
Maybe you need an emo boy
No underwear on the director's chair

You are seemingly unconscious
Of what your body's doing
Like Miss. Monroe, your head don't know
Exactly what your body's doing

Hey, hey little baby break down
Button up baby, you come undone
Hey, hey little baby get down
Before you fall and hurt someone

On TV, you are soft and whispery
Delicate like angel food cake
They say if you press too hard on it
It'll squish into a dense ball

It will lose its fluffiness
That's what you get when you use a boxed mix
Can you get some satisfaction?
How much are you willing to pay for?

Hey, hey little baby break down
Button up baby, you come undone

Hey, hey little baby get down
Before you fall and hurt someone

What's your gut feelin' about the new deal?
How's the label gonna remake you?
How was your date with Eminem?
Did he bake you and then forsake you?

Is innocence gonna still overtake you?
Like Arthur Doyle they can't fake you
Ah Mariah, you are endless
Like the wind, you're feeling defenseless

Hey, hey little baby break down
Button up baby, you come undone
Hey, hey little baby get down
Before you fall and hurt someone

Hey, hey little baby break down
Button up baby, you come undone
Hey, hey little baby get down
Before you fall and hurt someone

Hey, hey little baby break down
Button up baby, you come undone
Hey, hey little baby get down
Before you fall and hurt someone

Hey, hey little baby break down
Button up baby, you come undone
