[Thurston]

Whoahhoo!

i love you baby 'cause you're back in time i love you today

your eyes are flashing back a magic sign the sun comes out to play

i learned it all from you girl

i got it all from you

how to howl the moon yeah

how to scratch your door

i do it every day

come back again tomorrow

you chase it all away a dreaming beauty sleeping day and night the sun around you

i love you baby yeah you're superfine call me down too

a purring whirring fuzzy likes of day the switching sunlight

i chase you kitten get you every time funny how it flies

you chase my life away

i hear you purring down a supersoul i pop in to look a personal letter yeah a [???] roll [gold?] let her tear away

you chase the life away
