No ocean left to drown you
No anchor tied to pull you and soon enough
it's letting up
in full view
The sun will shine
and open sky of blue

CHORUS:

There's a color in the sky
making me cry
and I'll discover before I die
what makes the birds fly

So quiet now
the air still
and fallen pictures breaking my will
and soon enough
it's letting up
in full view
The sun will shine
and open sky of blue

CHORUS:

There's a color in the sky
making me cry
and I'll discover before I die
what makes the birds fly

CHORUS:

There's a color in the sky
making me cry
and I'll discover before I die
what makes the birds fly
