I can tell you how I feel about you night and day...

Sometimes I miss you

Sometimes I miss you

Sometimes I miss you

I can tell you how I feel about you night and day...

There are only whispers and shadows for me

The way things are the way things are

And with this I blow a kiss to disaster

Because I wish to perfect my heart...

I gotta check my mind...

Am I in tune with you?

Do we connect within the realm of the gods?

Electric word "life" that means forever and that's a mighty long time when you've kissed

Divine

So divine... as with you

The Christ within will come in the clouds

Trusting "divinity is always with you"

Trusting "this is the here and now"

Mercy's right... I gotta check my love and I'm trying to do as such

I don't let the demons get me down

It's just that sometimes I miss you so much...

Sometimes I miss you

Sometimes I miss you

Sometimes I miss you

I can tell you how I feel about you night and day...

I can envision all things to life

I can understand realistic ways

But I invent the next phase in forever

I like you, rewrite the next page

It's so pristine... It's so untouched

I'm an immaculate sign of devotion

Still unseen... I'm thinking so what

Bless me cursed with colorful emotions

God said "I guess you don't know I'm you because you know the entire 360"

A Christ, that's me

the Christ, that's you

Regardless... constantly within me

I'm not so responsible for this

I'm just a man in love with so much

I know love... you'll always be with me

It's just sometimes I miss you so much

Sometimes I miss you

Sometimes I miss you

Sometimes I miss you

I can tell you how I feel about you night and day...

(repeat chorus X3
