4:44) (A. Cordes)

When you run away with someone To the corners of your mind Be it time or place or space of love. I think you know....

Whatever

magnifies you. My heart won't let it go so, Whatever the barriers, whatever the forces are. I know that they don't matter, but they do... And that's why... (Chorus) I find it so hard for me to tell you... I what you to love me more... I find it so hard for me to tell you... I what you to love me more... I find it so hard for me to tell you... I what you to love me more... I find it so hard for me to tell you... I want you to love me more... If you could see what I see. When I rest my eyes on you. Be it people, words or anything. I think they know, I think they know... If it's you, it's you and only you. 'Cause my emotions run my life. So, wherever the rainbows go, wherever the teardrops are, I be they feel the love I get from you... And that's why... (Repeat Chorus) It's funny you should say I dream. you all this time. 'Cause all this time i think

I do... It's funny you should say you see love. I push to your heart... I sure hope it's in your nature to love me more... to love me more... to love me more... (repeat till fade
