Intuitive and silent
We're starting over
Rebuilding all the walls
Shielding our disguise
Untenable and violent
We're like the men
Standing in the fields
Cultivating lies

I'm gonna take you for a ride
And we can leave this world behind
And everyone that's so unkind
Gets swallowed by the tide
I'm gonna take you for a ride
And we can leave this world behind
And all my dreams are dreams of flight
With you right by my side (by my side)

Illiterate and sightless
We're leading ourselves
Following a trail
Laid with clouded eyes
Forgettable and mindless
We're lost again
Surrounded by the crowds
Shouting to the skies

I'm gonna take you for a ride
And we can leave this world behind
And everyone that's so unkind
Gets swallowed by the tide
I'm gonna take you for a ride
And we can leave this world behind
And all my dreams are dreams of flight
With you right by my side (by my side) (x2)
