Banner vision
Interpolating
A screen is set to safe
Passing river
Flowing money
A plastic god is made
City built on hairline wire
Country in decline
Seperation body:time
Nature redefined

We have designed our fascinations
We move to hide from animals inside
We have designed our machinations
We move tonight lest anyone survive

Magick makers coding life
Illusions of the path matter
Brokers dealing
Spirit value falling fast

We have designed our fascinations
We move to hide from animals inside
We have designed our machinations
We move tonight lest anyone survive
