yerkhas el gali..

you own me

you drive me crazy in this love .. And its like I have an angel everytime Im next to you

you own me

from this world take me

you can relax cause there is only your picture in my heart

Under your command..I'll have sleepless nights for ever just if you call me one night.

under your command amrak.. command my heart to put you in my eyes.

My soul.. mu soul is living in your hands.. and my soul isnt expensive for you yerkhas el gali x2

come one.. Im waiting in the nigths come on.. passion's fire lives in this love

come one.. come quickly come on and lets full this world in deep love.
