Take your eyes and see me now
Before I take what you took of me
Lay my head on bloodless hands tonight
Drown in tears the clear but poison wine

Well i need what you owe
Will you pay me back in bandaged covered wrists
Dont you know
The feeling of a cutthroat lover's kiss
Please dont go
Breaking other hearts just like this, just like this

Cause im the only one who sees you in the darkness of the night

And even though we're distant, I dream of you despite, the sickle in between us, that ruins and divides
And even though your gone I'll love you all of my life.
