Rainbow stars- Red sky

Red sky

A bomb exploded

Hundreds of people went to the

Re wars started

Now to end this story

or forever, no matter

Thousands of children died in the Thousands of harmless people

Thousands of young soldier

Thousands of families, there was no

Now kill us

Or in that place forever stop

Now pop it's the bomb

Or there to kill himself

Just wanted to live,

Just wanted to be happy

Hunger is pressed.

Again, it was the people who

So the hands of what passed ?

Now kill us

Or in that place forever stop

Now pop it's the bomb

Or there to kill himself

The dark clouds world wrapped in

Tears goals

Still a child, was

Again, a bomb exploded

End of this story here anymore

Poor people still came out,
Wars are started
The sky was the decision of the Lightning flashed
And the weapons to fire up about

A harmless to human than
Reached for the stars
A harmless to human than
The sky us winked at

The black stars in the sky, shines
The sky was blood red.
Just as harmless people don't like
Just like the earth
