Something disturbed my sleep - the spell is cast
It grows within me so deep and shatters my rest
I know this feeling, it calls to upper land
The word of power falls, I understand
Pentagram, I'm inside, the smoke around
Sorceress looks with pride - I'm still, I'm bound
"Thou shalt obey my will, I know thy name
Power of thine to kill shall bring me fame"
It's always the same - the greed that will never rust
Power and fame, money and blood they lust
But I see their fear hiding in every scum
So they lock me here - inside the pentagram
Ritual seems to begin, she starts to sing
Rhyme that holds me within this narrow ring
I must take a chance this time, is there chance for me?
A little distort of rhyme can set me free
I'm caught on earth but my home is of lands afar
With every rebirth I arise in this evil star
My claws are strong, my wings desire to fly
She thinks I belong to her but soon she will die
She falters, a little mistake, fear in her eyes
Pentagram starts to break, my forces rise
Feeling I've waited for years and thousands years
The chain that held me yields - I'm wild, I'm fierce
Free at last I rise and spread my wings
I fly so fast, revenge to all humans begins
My wrath is blind, nor woman nor child will survive
Beware mankind - the Angel of Death has arrived
