What is the significance,
In playing the part?
A smiling temperament,
A sour tongue
You will see behind the shadows,
They poison my eyes.
Something more than weeping angels,
Burn into my mind...

I will protect you
I will protect you
And I won't forget you
And I won't forget you...

Sinking on the way to us
Border to a part without a title...

There's a part of me,
In a part of you,
In a little change,
In a part of you
There's a part of me,
In a part of you,
In a little change,
In a part of you...

And I won't forget you
And I won't forget you
Someone's gotta keep you alive
And I can pretend to
And I can pretend to
Someone's gotta keep you alive
And I won't forget you
And I won't forget you
Someone's gotta keep you alive
I will protect you
I will protect you...

Won't let go
But I needed a change from you
Close this hole
But I needed a change

But I needed a change...
