Please sir can you help me?
I've been locked in this cage for two years
Two years and all I saw was my father
We are, very good friends, and I said no no no

I know that you are the one who put me on this world
And you're the only one who treats me like a girl
And I wanna be like you but I just don't know how
And I like you, I like you, I like you a lot

I'm over my head
Contradictions and deceptions
I saw the scale ascending
But I found we are descending

But I can't do it all by myself, I need someone to let go Cause I feel all this pain, and you're driving to my bones
And I know that you care but you're breaking all those rules
Philomela
