"Nothing Satisfies"

Watch in silence, speak up
Be around
Come on bright eyes follow
Out of town
Don't let that servant beat your
Self around
Sunday morning sadness
Stand your ground

Open up now close it
Open sound
It falls right between us
It's all around
Thoughts break all those
Sacred howls
There is so much red that
Does not shine

All these lies I tell well nothing satisfies
I keep talking fast untill you realize
All is said before our minds won't satisfy
We want heaven but is it just there 'cause we try?
