Hey, tell me what you're after,
where is all this leading,
is it really you, I need to know,
are you just an illusion,
and am I gonna be losing, stranded on the road.
I need that truth...that lies down under,
the surface of you skin, you deepest secret.

Cut me loose from this world
tell me I can wait no longer
every night is a lifetime missing you.
Cut me loose, I can't breath
show me how I can be stronger hear the sound of my heart that's beating loud.

I'm challenging tradition arguing with reason I'm walking down a lonely path to you say I'm not mistaking you're the choice I'm making I will take a leap of faith for you
I'm getting closer
I know just what I need
I'm standing on the edge.

Cut me loose from this world
tell me I can wait no longer
every night is a lifetime missing you.
Cut me loose, I can't breath
show me how I can be stronger
hear the sound of my heart that's beating loud.

I'm getting closer
I know just what I need
I'm standing on the edge.

Cut me loose from this world
I know we can make it better
every night is a lifetime missing you.

Cut me loose, I can't breath
show me how I can be stronger
hear the sound of my heart that's beating loud.
