I don't take life to the limit I know it's what you say about me we've got a special love growing and I wonder just where it can lead.

I get lost in a word it's a place where i go now i can share it with you...

Free to be, however we decide to be we make up our destiny forever more set me free you feel the empty space in me I'm reaching for a love and it's so good to be in time because your idea of love is just like mine.

All alone in your bedroom where you don't have to hide your tears so you look for a reason in your head and your heart, it is clean when you lie in the darkness and fell so unsure hold on to the love that you know.

Free to be, however we decide to be
we make up our destiny forever more free to be a bird who flies above the trees
I left the warm wind carry me
I'm never coming down
because your idea of love is just like mine.

Free to be, however we decide to be
we make up our destiny forever more
free to be a bird who flies above the trees
I left the warm wind carry me
I'm never coming down
because your idea of love is just like mine.
