Many pages in a story book
About love between two people like us
Is just a feeling of the moments
In a world without time

I can see easily
the beauty that's all surrounding you
Is reaching out
to touch my very soul

In my imagination the world is what we'll make it
And a love is all we need to carry on
In my imagination I've time to spend together
And a love is all we need to stay alive

Some people passing never look at us
As we run (running) along the chances in the wind
In all the morning I will dress you
(As) In the sunshine on my love

I can see easily
the beauty that's all surrounding you
Is reaching out
to touch my very soul

In my imagination the world is what we'll make it
And a love is all we need to carry on
In my imagination I've time to spend together
And a love is all we need to stay alive

So much time
I wasted searching
I was always (is) on my own
Now the world is never ending with you

In my imagination the world is what we'll make it
And a love is all we need to carry on
In my imagination I've time to spend together
And a love is all we need to stay alive
