She said it's all you'll ever need to be disheartened
Go over the word
Repeat
We'll get this started
I'd heard people say he was a good man in his day
All I can say
All I concede
The smile disappeared into his straight face
You made the first move
When I was near you we turned wrong to right
And now that I can hear
It all has past
I thank myself for seeing it out
The next will last
You made the first move
When I was near you
We turned wrong to right
