Someone upon that wall
Is just gonna spend the night with my girl
That's what I'm talkin' about
That's why
I'm gonna play this shout

RIT. The wall between Reality and fantasy
Is Sometimes so small And not so tall

I've looked into your eyes
And it should make me feel so bright satisfied
The only thing I've learned
Is just to fall and fall and fall!

RIT. The wall between Reality and fantasy
Is Sometimes so small And not so tall

Have you ever seen the shame in life
Smell of deadly colours in your sigh

Sometimes our life is strange
And it seems you gotta do it all by yourself
To arrange
Sensations never felt that's why my soul I'll never sell

RIT. The wall between Reality and fantasy
Is Sometimes so small And not so tall
