Believe me when I say it hurts,
for me to give up all my hope,
and turn my back on you.

You had a change of heart.
(you have no heart)
what was I thinking to tell you that?
what was I thinking when we first met?

Worry for you, the guy in your bed...
Shut your face, turn your back on the world.
Carry on, you run with your crowd,
So do I and now I'm out on my own.

You play your part so well,
and you should be an actor.
Its what you're really good at.
Your a drama queen times fifteen
you ruin everything, at least for me...

Worry for you, the guy in your bed
shut your face turn your back on the world.
Carry on, you run with your crowd,
So do I and now I'm out on my own.

away again. now I'm leaving... I'm leaving you.
Away again. now I'm leaving... I'm leaving you today.

you never knew how much this meant to me.
(Your eyes speak lies and you're making eyes at me.)
when we get older
we'll show her just what its like to play with hearts
and you'll know girl...I'm a bad boy...
and you fuckt with me for the last time
